BURGARS are working Augusta.

ANOTHER earthquake threatens the island of Ischia.

COMMODORE VINT SHINKLE, the well-known steamboat man of Covington, has made an assignment.

HEAVY losses of cattle for want of water are reported in the southern and southeastern ranges in Texas.

THE Republicans of New York will hold their State Convention at Richfield Springs on the 19th day of September.

THE occupancy of Egypt by England is about to be questioned, and it may lead to unpleasant complications with other European powers.

A PENNSYLVANIAN has killed fifty ground hogs this year. At this rate Vendor will be all there will be left to the Pennsylvanians by the second day of next February.

The straight-out Republicans of Virginia have endorsed James G. Blaine for the Presidency, and denounced the Administration for giving aid and countenance to Mahone.

MISS JESSIE BUCKNER, who figured in the Thompson-Davis tragedy, is about to make her debut as an opera singer. She will appear at the Casino Theatre in New York next October.

THE newspapers of central Kentucky are denouncing O'Brien's circus company as a gang of thieves and pickpockets. At Lexington the Mayor issued a proclamation of warning to the people.

THE dispatches from Boston in the last few days have been devoted largely to private Sullivan. General Butler, who knows something of booms, is being neglected. The Sullivan boom should be frowned upon.

THE official returns of the election from all the counties in the State except eight, give Governor Knott's majority at 44,713, against 43,917 for Governor Blackburn. The counties to be heard from will run the majority up to 45,000.

THE Yeoman says: It was a singular coincidence, and altogether a coincidence, that the Sunday Washington Post should have contained an extended review of Mr. Stanton's poems during his visit there, written by a stranger to him, and prepared as the date shows, before he had entertained the idea of a trip. The critique is an able one, and very complimentary to our poet laureate.

THE new postal note authorized by Congress will be used for the first time September 3rd. It is about the size of the United States notes but similar in character to the old fractional currency. The amount for which the note is issued is punched out in dollars, dimes and cents similar to a railroad ticket, and has the advantages of a bank check, the paper being thin the presence of money in a letter cannot be detected as in the case with silver, bank bill or postage stamps.

A MODEL WOMAN.

I know a woman wondrous fair,
A model woman she—
Who never runs her neighbors down
When she goes out to tea.

She never gossips after church
Of dresses or of hats;
She never meets the sewing school
And joins them in their spats.

She never talks of woman's rights;
Nor is she so unkind,
When'er her husband stays out late,
To talk him deaf and blind.

She never beats a salesman down,
Nor asks for pretty plaques;
She never asks the thousand things
Which do his patience tax.

These statements may seem very strange—
At least they may to some;
But just remember this, my friends,
The woman's deal and dumb.

Josh Billing's Guide to Health.

Be honest, if you can; if you can't be honest, pray for help.

Never run into debt, but if you can find anything else to run into.

Exercise in open air, but don't saw wood until you are obliged to.

Laff every time you feel tickled, and laff once in a while ennyhow.

Don't swear, it may convince you but it is sure not to convince others.

Marry young, and if you make a hit keep cool and don't brag about it.

Don't jaw back—it proves that you are as big a phool as the other phool.

Eat hash washing days, and be thankful, if you have to shut your eyes to do it.

Don't drink too much new cider, and however mean you may be, don't abuse a k.o.v.

Never borrow what you are able to buy, and always have some things you won't lend.

Bathe thoroughly once a week in soft water and kasteel soap, and avoid tite boots.

Never get in a hurry; you can walk a good deal further in a day than you can run.

Hold the baby half the time, and always start the fire in the morning and put on the tea kettle.

A Pittsburg correspondent of Coal gives the following: "To give the trade an idea of the cost of keeping up a Pittsburg towboat, I append an abstract from the books of one of the oldest and most extensive shippers of river-coal in the world. The boat in question has just closed a season of 270 days' active service. This includes five round trips between Louisville and New Orleans (1,400 miles), and three round trips between Pittsburg and New Orleans (2,000 miles). This boat's account is charged with the following items: Wages, $23,740; stores, $7,939; fuel, $11,200; repairs to machinery, boilers, wheel, etc., $4,131; rope, $2,160; total, $48,220. To this boat's credit was placed the sum of $72,000. The coal she handled during the season footed up 3,152,031 bushels between the points named, at three cents for the long distance trips, and a fixed allowance for returning empty craft against the current of the Mississippi and the Ohio.
